

This filing relates to a planned business combination between American Tower Corporation (the “Company”) and SpectraSite, Inc. (“SpectraSite”) pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 3, 2005 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among the Company, SpectraSite and Asteroid Merger Sub, LLC. The Merger Agreement was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company on May 5, 2005.

On July 28, 2005, the Company issued a press release which contained the following information about nominees to the Company’s board of directors pursuant to the Merger Agreement:

Board of Director Nominees

Pursuant to its May 3, 2005 merger agreement with SpectraSite, the Company has agreed to expand the size of its board of directors from six to ten members and appoint four new board members from the SpectraSite board of directors, effective at the closing of the merger. The nominating and corporate governance committees of each company unanimously recommended that each of Stephen Clark, Paul Albert, Jr., Dean Douglas and Samme Thompson be appointed to the Company’s board at the closing. In the joint proxy statement/prospectus mailed to stockholders in connection with the merger, the companies had previously identified Timothy Biltz as an anticipated director nominee. Mr. Biltz has indicated to the companies that, due to personal reasons, he has declined to be nominated as a director.

The Company and SpectraSite will each hold a special meeting of stockholders on August 3, 2005 to vote on the proposed merger and other related proposals. Once stockholder approval for the merger is obtained and the companies complete the merger, the new directors will be formally appointed to the Company’s board of directors, each to serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders.

Cautionary Language Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

Statements herein regarding the proposed merger between American Tower and SpectraSite, the expected timing of related transactions and the expected timetable for completing the merger constitute forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of American Tower’s and SpectraSite’s management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Any statements that are not statements of historical fact (including statements containing the words “believes,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “expects,” estimates and similar expressions) should also be considered to be forward looking statements. There are a number of important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those indicated by such forward looking statements, including: the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the transaction on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of American Tower and SpectraSite stockholders to approve the transaction; the ability of American Tower to successfully integrate SpectraSite’s operations and employees. Additional factors that may affect future results are contained in American Tower’s and SpectraSite’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), including each company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, which are available at the SEC’s website <http://www.sec.gov>. The information set forth herein speaks only as of the date hereof, and American Tower and Spectrasite disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward looking statements as a result of developments occurring after the date hereof.
